

Summer Reading Resources

Avoid the “summer slide” by using these summer reading resources! The “summer slide” occurs when students do not read as much during the summer as they do during the school year. This can cause a decline in their reading skills. Dickson County Schools encourages students and their families to read throughout the summer. Your child will become a more confident reader when given encouragement, suggestions and praise. Make reading part of your family’s summer fun!

Dickson County School District

<http://www.dicksoncountyschools.org/>

Go to: Parents – Elementary Summer Reading Lists

Librarian recommended suggestions of books for our elementary students.

MyOn

<https://www.myon.com/login/index.html>

Log on with Clever (at the bottom of the page)

Username and Password are student’s 7 digit number.

Dickson County Public Library – Summer Reading May, June, and July

<http://www.dicksonpubliclibrary.com/default.asp>

Best way to know what is going on at this library is through their Facebook page.

Summer reading activities every day in May, June, and July

Free E Books on Tennessee Reads! Ask at this library how to join!

Jennie Woodworth Library

<http://townofwhitebluff.com/TownHall/JennieWoodworthLibrary.aspx>

Best way to know what is going on at this library is through their Facebook page.

Summer reading activities in June.

Reading Rock Books

<http://www.thereadingrock.com/>

Summer story time! Check out website for details.

Reading Rock Books hosts Find Waldo Local in July. Pick up a brochure at Reading Rock and then search for Waldo throughout downtown Dickson.

Tennessee Electronic Library

You might also visit <http://www.tel4u.org> to find magazine articles, encyclopedia articles and other fact-filled sites!