

Dear Discovery School parents,

Our faculty and staff are working hard to ready for the 2013-2014 school year. We are confident that your child will be happy, safe, and successful each learning day.

Supply lists are posted on the window by our office door. We sent a copy home in the final report card, but we added a list on the door in case yours has been misplaced. ☺

We will be posting class rolls on Thursday, July 18th.

The first day of school will be Thursday, August 1st. The first bell rings at 7:45 and our morning assembly will begin. Please do your best to drop your child off before 7:45. I typically open the doors every morning at 7:10.

After assembly, students will go with their teacher to the classroom and we will send paperwork home with your child at the end of the day. This will give you a chance to thoroughly read the handbook, student rules, and any procedural changes. We ask you to please return completed paperwork no later than Monday, August 5th. We need to have this documentation on each of our students.

We realize your child needs time to adjust to the new routine and a new teacher. We want each child to have the first 9 days to get comfortable with his/her new environment. During those nine days, you will be receiving personal communications from the classroom and are welcome to call the school with any questions.

After our Kindergarten students are settled in, we will hold an Open House on Tuesday, August 13th from 5:00pm to 7:00pm. Teachers will be available to answer any questions you may have. The Discovery School believes in a strong school/home relationship. We value your input as part of your child's learning team.

In the days ahead, we will post additional information about our new dismissal routine.

If you need before school daycare, please email me at dbogdan@dcbe.org and let me know what time you would plan to drop off your child each day. I will relay this information to Mrs. Ernestine Adams in order to determine the need for before school care.

The countdown has begun! We will see you soon!